

Generated Questions

Q: What is the primary function of CSS (Cascading Style Sheets) in web development?

Option A: To add interactivity to web pages

Option B: To create server-side logic for dynamic content

Option C: To control layout, visual styling, and user experience on web pages

Option D: To manage database interactions for web applications

Answer: To control layout, visual styling, and user experience on web pages

Q: Which of the following Server-side scripting languages is known for its use in Node.js environments?

Option A: PHP

Option B: Python

Option C: JavaScript

Option D: Ruby

Answer: JavaScript

Q: State Management in frontend web development refers to?

Option A: Managing server responses for faster page loads

Option B: Controlling the state of application data across components

Option C: Enhancing security protocols for user data

Option D: Optimizing database queries for performance

Answer: Controlling the state of application data across components

Q: What does 'S' typically stand for in the context of CSS, when discussing web page layout?

Option A: Size

Option B: Spacing

Option C: Style

Option D: Structure

Answer: Style

Q: In web development, which storage solution is primarily used for storing data on the client-side?

Option A: MySQL

Option B: MongoDB

Option C: Local Storage

Option D: Azure Storage

Answer: Local Storage