

Generated Questions

Q: What does the 'W' in 'Web Development' primarily refer to in the context of the given technologies?

Option A: Website

Option B: Web Server

Option C: World Wide Web

Option D: Widget

Answer: World Wide Web

Q: Which of the following technologies is NOT typically associated with the front-end of Web Development?

Option A: e (ECMAScript, e.g., JavaScript)

Option B: t (Tech like Node.js for server-side)

Option C: c (CSS for styling)

Option D: l (Layout design with HTML/CSS)

Answer: t (Tech like Node.js for server-side)

Q: What is the primary function of 'c' (CSS) in Web Development among the given options?

Option A: Creating interactive client-side functionality

Option B: Designing the layout and visual styling

Option C: Setting up the server environment

Option D: Developing the database logic

Answer: Designing the layout and visual styling

Q: In the context of Web Development with the given technologies, what does 'o' (often represented by technologies like Node.js) primarily facilitate?

Option A: Client-side scripting for dynamic effects

Option B: Server-side development for backend logic

Option C: Database management for storing data

Option D: Network security for protecting websites

Answer: Server-side development for backend logic

Q: Which technology represented by the letters is crucial for structuring content on the web?

Option A: e (ECMAScript, e.g., JavaScript)

Option B: h (HTML)

Option C: t (Technologies like Node.js)

Option D: l (Languages for styling like CSS)

Answer: h (HTML)